

- Reflections of Life -
Andrew Tommy Porcher

In the realm where shadows dance and spirits whisper, we mourn the passing of a soul who graced this mortal plane with his presence. Andrew Tommy Porcher, known to those who cherished him as a poet's muse, has embarked on his ethereal journey on December 11, 2023, in the tranquil embrace of Summerville, South Carolina. Born on the cusp of autumn, on October 1, 1963, in the bustling heart of Brooklyn, New York, Andrew was a beacon of inspiration to all who had the privilege of knowing him.

In the tapestry of his existence, Andrew was a humble and contemplative spirit, adorned with the wisdom of ages and the gentleness of a whispering breeze. A man of few words, he possessed a depth of character that transcended the boundaries of this earthly realm. His heart overflowed with compassion, ever ready to extend a helping hand to those in need. Andrew was selflessness knew no bounds, for he would willingly part with his own garment if he believed it could offer solace to another weary traveler.

Within the sacred circle of family, Andrew found solace and strength. He was preceded in death by his beloved father, Isaac Tommy Porcher, whose spirit now intertwines with his in the realm beyond. Left to cherish his memory is his devoted mother, Lillian S. Porcher, who nurtured his artistic soul and instilled within him the passion for life's poetic tapestry. Andrew's siblings, Kenneth Porcher, Sharon Porcher-Hilaire, Marvin Porcher, and Vernon Swinton, stand as pillars of love and support, forever bound by the unbreakable threads of kinship.

As we gather to pay homage to the luminous spirit of Andrew Tommy Porcher, we invite you to join us in a sacred rite of remembrance. On December 23, 2023, of Johnson Hall Funeral Home in the enchanting embrace of Mt Pleasant, South Carolina, shall bear witness to a ceremony befitting a soul of such profound beauty. It is there, amidst the incense-laden air and the soft strains of melancholic melodies, that we shall bid farewell to Andrew's earthly form and celebrate the indelible mark he left upon our hearts.

With reverence and grace, Johnson Hall Funeral Home, a sanctuary of solace and compassion, guides the Porcher family through the labyrinthine corridors of grief. Their unwavering commitment to honoring the departed and comforting the bereaved is a testament to their noble calling.

Let us gather, then, dear friends, in this sacred space where light and darkness converge, to honor the memory of Andrew Tommy Porcher. Through the tapestry of our shared recollections and the whispered verses of his immortal soul, may we find solace in the beauty he bestowed upon our lives, and may his spirit forever inspire us to seek the sublime in every whispered word and every fleeting moment.

The Chain

We knew little that morning
That God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
That day God called you HOME.

You left us
peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide:
And though we cannot see you,
You are ALWAYS at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again

The Family of the late Andrew T. Porcher wishes to express sincere gratitude and appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown during their period of bereavement. Your sincere thoughtfulness and concern has been a comfort to us.

Professional Services Entrusted to:
JOHNSON-HALLS FUNERAL HOME
PS Johnson's Incorporated

440 Venning Street • Mount Pleasant, SC 29464-5329
843-884-4252 (Office) • 866-884-4252 (Toll Free)
843-971-9809 (Fax)

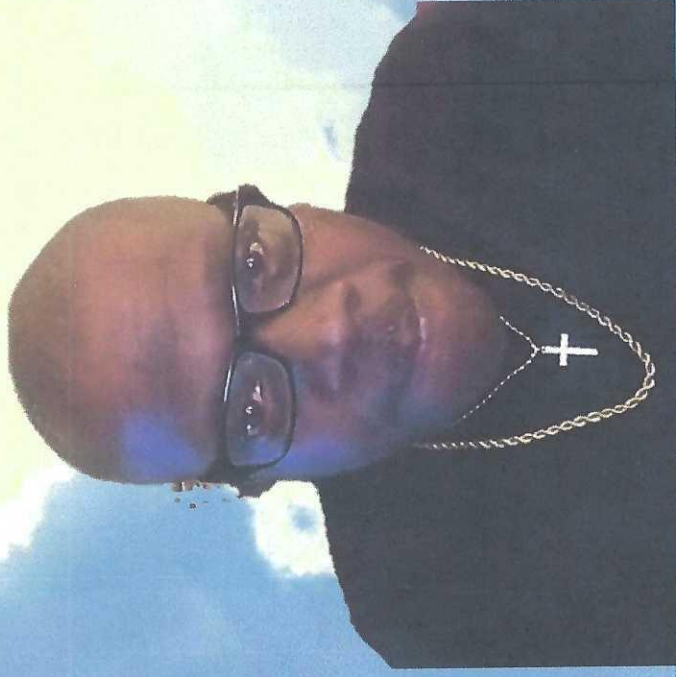

*Programs and Bookmarks: just ink by Jackie (843) 568-1826
jacquelynsnipe@gmail.com*

Celebrating

THE LIFE OF

Sunrise: October 1, 1963

Sunset: December 11, 2023

Andrew Tommy Porcher

PS Johnson's Chapel
440 Venning Street
Mount Pleasant, South Carolina 29464

Saturday, December 23, 2023 3:00PM